Beta Gamma Sigma inducts newest members

April 24, 2012

The Tulane chapter of Beta Gamma Sigma, the international honor society recognizing business excellence, welcomed its newest members at a ceremony in Goldring/Woldenberg Hall II on April 23, 2012.

Beta Gamma Sigma inductees included, left to right, Wendi Zeng (MFIN ’12), Jordan Lambert (PMBA ’12), Guanqi Li (MFIN ’12), Josh Rupert (MBA ’12) and Xuanhao Huang (MFIN ’12).

Beta Gamma Sigma is recognized by the educational and corporate communities as the highest recognition a business student can receive in a program accredited by AACSB International — the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business.

Since its founding in 1913, Beta Gamma Sigma has inducted more than 675,000 members from 507 collegiate chapters and 24 alumni chapters. Members currently reside in all 50 states and more than 160 countries throughout the world. The Tulane chapter of Beta Gamma Sigma was established in 1924.
