Four alums named to DiversityMBA Top 100 Under 50 list

July 23, 2015

Four alumni of Tulane University's A. B. Freeman School of Business are among the honorees in the 2015 DiversityMBA Magazine Top 100 Under 50.

The list, compiled by DiversityMBA Magazine, recognizes exceptional minority and multicultural executives — including African Americans, Asians, Hispanics, foreign nationals and women — who have achieved success in highly competitive corporate, government or entrepreneurial environments. The 2015 list was chosen from a pool of 300 nominees. Executives and emerging leaders selected for the list represent 25 disciplines, 15 industries and 20 different graduate degrees.

This year's Freeman School honorees are Gary Cao (MBA '97), vice president of Cardinal Health; Ruben Garcia Espejo (MBA '01), vice president of finance, EnLink Mindstream; Shane Price (MBA '09, MGM '09), senior consultant, Engage Partners; and John Suarez (BSM '04, MBA '10), financial adviser, Merrill Lynch.

Cao and Garcia were honored as executive leaders while Price and Suarez were chosen as emerging leaders.

Diversity MBA Magazine is an internationally distributed publication targeting women and multicultural professionals in corporate America and government as well as entrepreneurs and business students.

The honorees will be featured in *DiversityMBA Magazine'*s summer 2015 issue and will be honored in September at the magazine's Business Leaders Conference and Awards Gala, which this year takes place at the DoubleTree by Hilton in Oak Brook, Illinois.
