

Freeman School Faculty Recruiting Inclusivity & Diversity Task Force

January 12, 2021

In our continuing effort to enhance inclusivity and diversity within the A. B. Freeman School of Business, I am pleased to announce the establishment of the Faculty Recruiting Inclusivity & Diversity Task Force. The charge and membership are listed below.

Freeman School Faculty Recruiting Inclusivity & Diversity Task Force

Enhancing Faculty Inclusivity & Diversity in the Freeman School

The task force's charge is to suggest changes in extant policies, practices and processes and proposed new policies, practices and processes with promise for enhancing Freeman's attractiveness to all faculty but especially historically underrepresented faculty members.

The task force will report to the dean of the Freeman School no later than the end of the spring 2021 term recommendations for enhancing faculty inclusivity and diversity within the Freeman School's faculty. Special focus will be placed on the policies, practices and processes that should be employed in the faculty recruitment process that hold promise for attracting historically underrepresented populations.

Task Force Members:

- Ted Fee, Chair (Senior Associate Dean)
- Adrienne Colella (Professor of Management)
- Mara Force (Professor of Practice in Finance)
- Mauricio Gonzales (Professor of Practice in Marketing)
- Megan Guy (Professor of Practice - Legal Studies)
- Alexander Hua (graduate student - M3-Med)
- Presley Klinger (BSM '21)
- Nushrah Malik (graduate student '22)
- Daniel Mochon (Associate Professor of Marketing)
- Sharon Moore (Task Force Convener, Assistant Dean of Academic Operations)
- Gans Narayanamoorthy (Associate Professor of Accounting)
- Erica Neely (Ex Officio, Assistant Dean of Strategic Initiatives)
- Greg Oldham (Professor of Management)
- Claire Senot (Associate Professor of Management Science)
- Ricky Tan (Assistant Professor of Management Science)
- Erick Valentine (Professor of Practice in Accounting)
- Kenichi Yamaguchi (BSM '22)
- Myke Yest (Senior Professor of Practice in Finance)

-Ira Solomon, Dean, A. B. Freeman School of Business

January 8, 2021