

MBAs help Community Health Center take stock

November 13, 2024

As part of the full-time MBA program's new Consulting Practicum, a team of MBA students worked with St. Thomas Community Health Center to streamline the organization's inventory management process.

Interested in advancing your education and/or career? Learn more about Freeman's wide range of graduate and undergraduate programs. Find the right program for you.