Daniel Solomon (BSM ’26)

May 4, 2026

Name: Daniel Solomon

Hometown: San Francisco, California

Major: Finance

Minor: Data Analytics

What are your top Freeman extracurricular activities?

Wall St. Krewe

What community or volunteer activities did you participate in outside of the busine school?

First Generation Investors (Site Lead), Zeta Psi Fraternity (Vice President), Men’s Club Basketball

What academic, extracurricular or personal achievement are you most proud of?

I’m most proud of my spring Internship at New Orleans Investment Bank, Chao & Associates.

What was your favorite business course?

Venture Capital & Private Equity with Professor David Thompson and Fixed Income with Amanda Heitz.

Who is your favorite business professor and why?

David Thompson because he offered mentorship and a curriculum that connects learning to real careers.

What’s your favorite memory of Freeman?

I won 1st Place in the Venture Capital & Private Equity Fund Pitch Competition.

What are the top items on your professional bucket list?

- Master the art of integrating AI tools into my everyday workflow
- Learn the ins and outs of aerospace and next-gen satellite constellations
- Become a professor someday

What’s a fun fact about yourself?

I’ve gone bowling in the White House!