Research Notes: Christine Smith

November 18, 2026

Christine Smith is the co-author "Survey of Accounting, 4th Edition," a new textbook co-authored with Paul Kimmel, Jerry Weygandt and Matthew Cedergren. Published by Wiley in November 2026, the book offers a hands-on, practical approach designed to help students see not just how accounting works, but why it matters. Smith is a senior professor of practice and faculty director of the Master of Accounting and joint BSM/MACCT programs.
